FOREWORD

I found Brother Camp's book on Paul's letters to Timothy and Titus to be very useful as a text for the eldership of the local congregation. Leaders in today's church - both preachers and bishops - will be informed and challenged to do a much better work.

The special studies of related subject is alone worth the price of the book. In this day of superficial preparation for preaching and overseeing, this is a most welcome study text.

Yours in Him,

Don DeWalt

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Without the help of many people these notes could not have been compiled. I want to take this time to make acknowledgement to certain of those individuals. To my wife, who has served as proof-reader, typist and content analyst, but most of all as a wonderful help-meet. In ways too numerous to list here she has been a very direct force in the study and writing of these notes. To the secretaries of the Treaty Church for their long, long hours of work I direct gratitude for their help in the Lord's work. The elders of the Church at Treaty are men I respect and appreciate for their interest in God's Word and work and for allowing me to teach this class. I appreciate the help Tom Reynolds has given in the use of his electronic equipment. To everyone who joined in this study, for together each of us has realized the message, mission and ministry of each Christian. Above all else, to God be the glory, great things He has done. Without His ever-present Being all would be loss.

PREFACE

The Lord appeared unto Solomon in Gibeon and said, "Ask what I shall give thee." To this Solomon answered, "Give therefore thy servant an understanding heart to judge thy people, that I may discern between good and bad; for who is able to judge this thy so great a people?" (I Kings 3:5 & 9)

Solomon was successful as long as he followed the will of God. There is a great need for leaders for God in the local congregations today to follow God's will. These leaders will be successful as long as they follow God's blueprint for leadership for His church as found in I & II Timothy & Titus.

It is the prayer of this author that this study will be an aid to understanding "God's Blueprint for Leadership of His Church" by the Christian who is a serious student of God's Word.
