

WHEN I READ THE BIBLE THROUGH

I supposed I knew my Bible
 Reading piecemeal hit and miss,
 Now a bit of John or Matthew,
 Now a snatch of Genesis,
 Certain chapters of Isaiah
 Certain Psalms (the twenty-third);
 Twelfth of Romans, First of Proverbs
 Yes, I thought I knew the Word;
 But I found that thorough reading
 Was a different thing to do,
 And the way was unfamiliar
 When I read the Bible through.

Oh, the massive, mighty volume!
 Oh, the treasures manifold!
 Oh, the beauty of the wisdom
 And the grace it proved to hold!
 As the story of the Hebrews
 Swept in majesty along,
 As it leaped in waves prophetic,
 As it burst to sacred song,
 As it leaped in waves prophetic,
 As it burst to sacred song,
 As it gleamed with Christly omens,
 The Old Testament was new,
 Strong with cumulative power,
 When I read the Bible through.

Ah! Imperial Jeremiah,
 With his keen, coruscant mind;
 And the blunt old Nehemiah,
 And Ezekiel refined!
 Newly came the song idyllic,
 And the tragedy of Job;
 Deuteronomy, the regal,
 To a towering mountain grew,
 With its comrade peaks around it
 When I read the Bible through.

What a radiant procession
 As the pages rise and fall,
 James the study, John the tender
 Oh, the myriad-minded Paul!
 Vast apocalyptic glories
 Wheel and thunder, flash and flame,
 While the church triumphant rises
 One incomparable name.
 Ah, the story of the Savior
 Never grows supremely true
 Till you read it whole and swiftly
 Till you read the Bible through.

You who like to play at Bible,
 Dip and dabble, here and there,
 Just before you kneel, aweary,
 And yawn through a hurried prayer;
 You who treat the Crown of Writings
 As you treat no other book
 Just a paragraph disjointed,
 Just a crude, impatient look
 Try a worthier procedure,
 Try a broad and steady view;
 You will kneel in very rapture
 When you read the Bible through.

A Bible Reading Guide

THE WHOLE BIBLE IN A YEAR

When you enter into this daily Bible reading guide you will be joining thousands of incarcerated men, women, boys and girls who are doing the same in isolated prison cells all across America, and hundreds of military personnel at home and abroad. You will also be uniting with missionaries, native evangelists and fellow Christians on mission fields around the world.

It is exciting to think that each day you will be reading the same exact passages along with the ARM staff, our board of directors, office volunteers and other ARM supporters. All of this will add unity and strength to the ARM family. Although great distances (and sometimes bodies of water) often separate us, we are in this way linked together in Bible reading and prayer.

Linda and I know that this Bible reading program will draw us all together into a new life of spiritual power, riches, wisdom, glory and blessing. You don't have to wait until January to start. Check off your assigned scripture reading each day. Feed on God's Word like the Patriarch Job, who said, "...I have treasured the words of His mouth more than my necessary food" (Job 23:12).

The Bible reveals the mind of God, the state of man, the doom of sinners, the way of salvation and the happiness of believers. Its doctrines are holy, its precepts are binding, its histories are true, and its decisions are immutable. Read it to be wise, believe it to be safe and practice it to be holy. It contains light to direct you, food to support you and comfort to cheer you.

It is the traveler's map, the pilgrim's staff, the pilot's compass, the soldier's sword and the Christian's charter. Here Heaven is opened, Paradise is restored and the gates of Hell disclosed. The glory of God is its end, Christ is its grand subject and our good is its design. It should fill the memory, rule the heart and guide the feet. Read it slowly, frequently and prayerfully.

It is a mine of wealth and a river of pleasure. It is given to you in life, will be opened in the Judgement and will be remembered forever. It involves the highest responsibility, rewards the greatest labor and condemns all that trifle with its sacred contents. Owned, it is riches; trusted, it is salvation; loved, it is character; and obeyed, it is power.

Born in the East and clothed in Oriental form and imagery, the Bible walks the world with familiar feet, and enters land after land to find its own everywhere. It has learned to speak in hundreds of languages to the heart of man. It tells the monarch that he is a son of God, children listen to its stories with wonder and delight, and wise men ponder them as parables of life.

It has a word of peace for the time of peril, a word of comfort for the time of calamity, a word of light for the hour of darkness. Its oracles are repeated in the assembly of the people, and its counsels whispered in the ear of the lonely. The wicked and the proud tremble at its warnings, but to the wounded and the penitent it has a mother's voice.

The wilderness and the solitary place have been made glad by it, and the fire on the hearth has lit the reading of its well-worn pages. It has woven itself into our dearest dreams so that love, friendship, sympathy and devotion, memory and hope put on the beautiful garments of its treasured speech, breathing of frankincense and myrrh.
