

PALESTINE IN THE TIME OF CHRIST

NOTE: Different writers use the terms "Syria" and "Judaea" to include the whole of Palestine when speaking of the land from different points of view. The cities of the Decapolis are indicated by stars.

"And Jesus went about in all Galilee, teaching gospel of the kingdom, and healing all manner among the people. And the report of him went him all that were sick, holden with divers demons, epileptic, and palsied; and he healed them. And there followed him great multitudes from Galilee and Decapolis and Jerusalem and Judaea and from beyond the Jordan."

in their synagogues, and preaching the of disease and all manner of sickness forth into all Syria: and they brought to diseases and torments, possessed with demons, and there followed him great multitudes from Galilee and Decapolis and Jerusalem and Judaea and from beyond the Jordan."

Matthew 4:23-25
